About ZyFin

ZyFin Research is India's first and foremost Macro Analytics firm. We provide unique insights and forecasts on the Indian economy and convert them into actionable strategies for market participants.

Our unique insights are derived from an exclusive, monthly survey of 4,000 Indian consumers across 18 key Indian cities. This first-of-its-kind survey provides us with a real-time view on consumption, employment and inflation in India. Our team of economists, strategy and market analysts use these, along with over 100 real economy elements, to forecast a range of macro-economic variables, and create actionable strategies for market participants.

Our clients comprise strategy, research teams and traders at buy-side and sell-side firms, commercial and retail banks, manufacturing and services firms, multilaterals, government and academic institutions. Regulators and industry bodies use our insights as part of their policy making activities.
